

Sophie the Duckling

Animals · On the pond

Builds: whole-arm strokes · animal sounds · first crayon grip

Talk about it: What does a duckling say? Can you waddle like one?

Grown-up tip: Say the sound before you colour a part – quack for the beak, splash for the water. Two-year-olds will repeat a sound long after they have stopped listening to words.