

Dot-to-dot: cat 1-20

Join the dots from 1 to 20. From 20 go back to 1. Then color the cat and draw its body.

Recommended age: 4-5 years · number dot-to-dot

Name _____

Date _____

Tip for parents: If the child hesitates at eleven, just say “ten and one”. The ears come as a surprise – let the child say what it is once they are joined. Drawing the body afterwards is part of the fun.

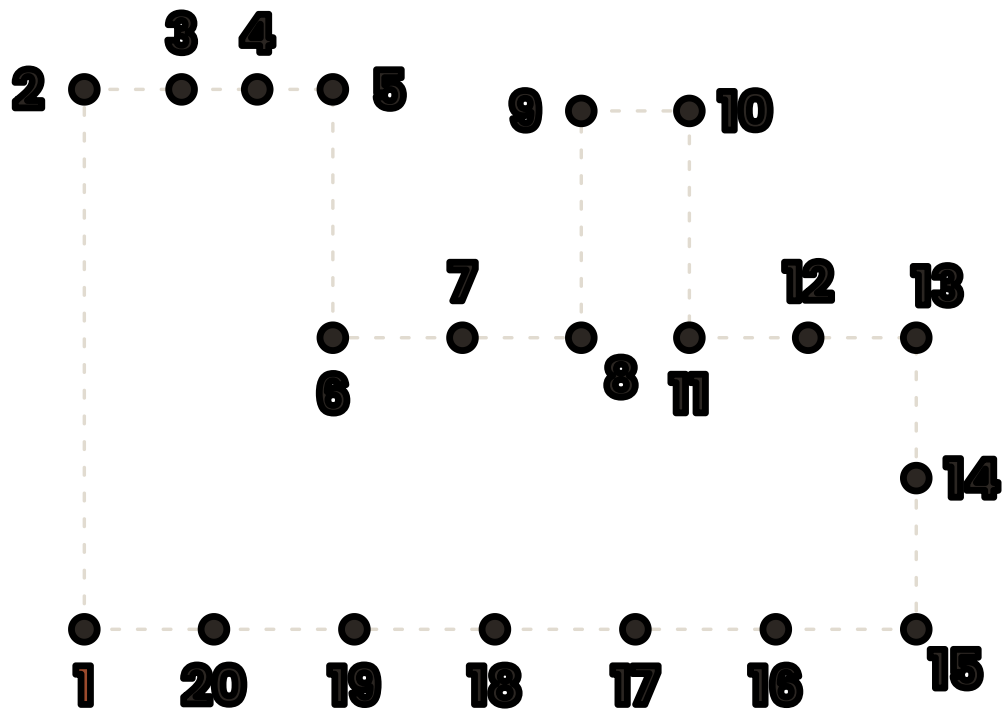

Dot-to-dot: train 1-20

Join the dots from 1 to 20. Then draw the wheels and the window and trace the smoke.

Recommended age: 4-5 years · number dot-to-dot

Date _____

Tip for parents: Straight lines come out better when the paper is taped to the table. No ruler – a freehand line is the goal.
If there is appetite left, add carriages behind the engine on a blank sheet.

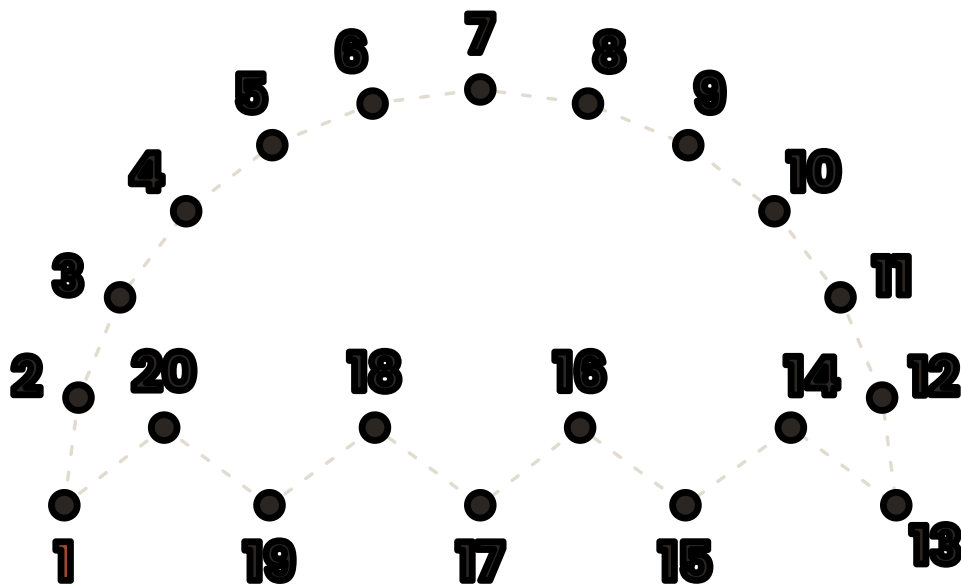

Dot-to-dot: umbrella 1-20

Join the dots from 1 to 20. Then color the umbrella and draw more raindrops.

Recommended age: 4-5 years · number dot-to-dot

Date _____

Tip for parents: The points along the edge are the hardest part – remind the child to “go to the dot and stop there”. The finished umbrella can be colored like a real one at home. More raindrops are welcome.

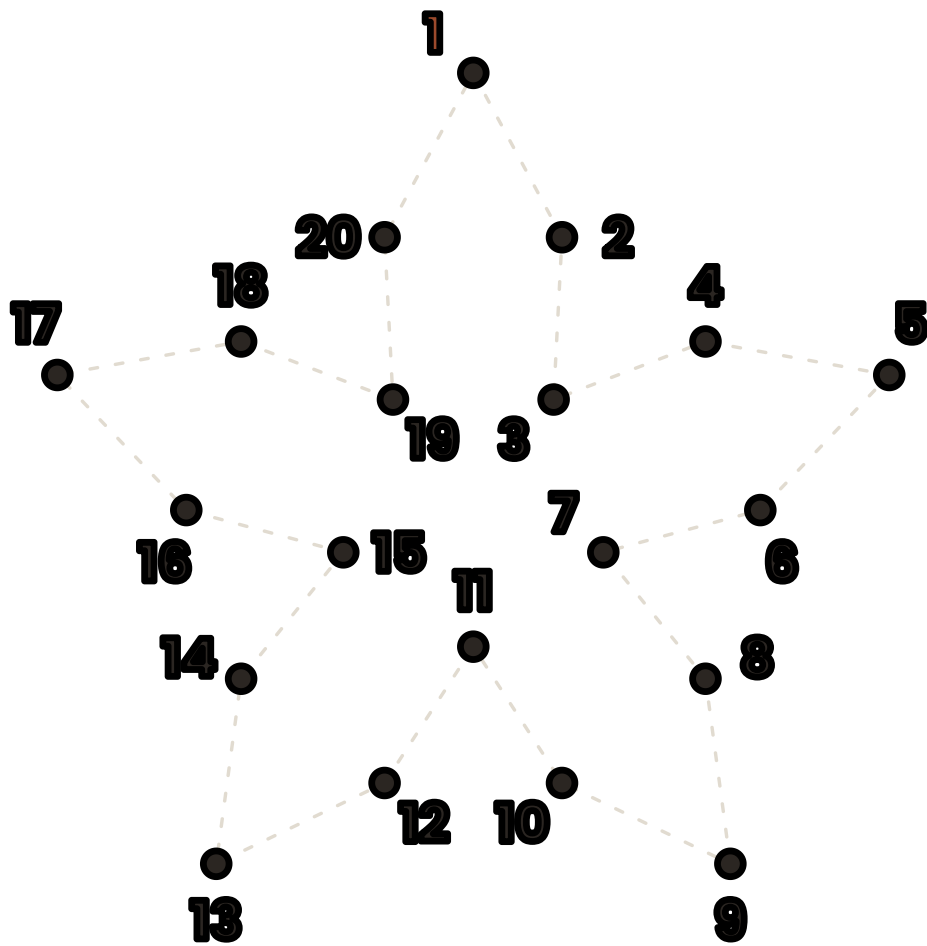

Dot-to-dot: flower 1-20

Join the dots from 1 to 20. From 20 go back to 1. Then color the flower.

Recommended age: 4-5 years · number dot-to-dot

Tip for parents: Before starting, ask how many petals there will be – then check together once it is joined. The middle of the flower is a good place for a pattern of dots or circles. The coloring is part of the sheet, not an extra.
